“ So very sorry to hear about Debbie her and I have been friends since third grade. We share lots of memories together..She was such a good person always had a smile. The last time I seen her, she wasn't doing well so all I know is no more suffering or pain. I pray that God wraps his loving arms with Peace & Comfort around each one of her loved ones at this difficult time.. we are praying for each one and know that God will get you through each day hold onto all the sweet memories. May God bless.❤❤❤

I will surely miss my friend Debbie Walton. I came and took care of her for the first 2 weeks after she broke her leg! Will cherish the memories made with her!❤

“ Such sorrow of the passing of Debbie.

We were crib cousins and shared many lifetime memories. Debbie was a gentle soul with an infectious laugh and I carry such fun and fond memories of her passion for chocolate and any southern cooked food.

My sincere sympathy and condolences go out to Jamie and his family, aunt Betty and cousins Ronnie and Glen.

May Debbie's soul soar high and shine brightly in the heavens as she joins other family members who look over all of us below. Until we meet again Debbie... with lots of love and sending heaven bound hugs above! ✨🙏❤️🕊️✨
