“ I will never forget the times that Diane and I played banjo together, and she asked me to teach her what I knew about the banjo. She was such a powerfully creative person, always eager to learn and share new experiences. I am so thankful for the times I got to share with her and Jim at my sister, Irene's, and her husband, Keith's home. She was such a special person, and I know she is now at peace in the arms of our dear Lord Jesus, with no more suffering and pain. How wonderful that we will see her again someday in Heaven! I send my sincere condolences to Jim and all of Diane's family. Lavonne Baker, Pound, Va.

“ Dear family,
I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Diane.
I remember her from our time at NKHS. I always thought she was such a pretty girl and so sweet.
I hadn't seen her in years until our NKHS Reunion in Williamsburg. I was so happy to see her. She still looked the same! Only now she was a beautiful lady.
Cherish all of your wonderful memories of Diane.
