“ Dearest Mildred and Family,

Our deepest and sincerest sympathy on the loss of Donnie. Thank you so much sister Ann Hite Hogge for letting us know your brother Donnie had passed. Your phone calls meant so much. I would like to share with you dear family and friends what I posted on my fb page regarding, Donnie.

"RIP Donnie Hite...you will be greatly missed by your family and friends. So happy you are in a much better place. Thank you for all the wonderful years of memories you gave us at the West Point, VA Hite Reunions. I can't say enough good things about you. A wonderful husband, father, and friend. Truly devoted to all of your family. Couldn't ask for a better second cousin. I am so happy to have known you. Much love, and esteem."

“ *Mildred and family,
I am so sorry to hear of Donnie's passing. I remember how much Aunt Evelyn & Uncle Stanley Paczkowski thought of you two. You both are such nice caring people. Cherish your memories. With heartfelt sympathy, Gloria Couch (formerly Foster)*
