

Doris Adams Slusser

January 17, 1938 - November 21, 2016

Doris Adams Slusser, 78, of Charles City, went to be with the Lord on Monday, November 21, 2016. Doris was a multi-talented woman who deeply loved her family. She was a tremendous cook, owned her own antique business, and was a talented musician. For three decades, she played the organ at Memorial United Methodist Church and was a lifelong member of Bethany Presbyterian Church.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents, Daniel and Doris Adams; and by two-grandchildren, Johnathan and Stephen.

Doris is survived by her husband of 38 years, Richard Slusser; three daughters, Lisa Black (Chuck), Anne Crom (Richard) and Melinda Tench; two sisters, Betty Jean Crocker and Ann Johnson; two brothers, Daniel and David Adams; three step-children, Debbie Gottwald (Russ), Cindy Salomone (Michael) and Ricky Slusser (Ann); 10 grandchildren, Ráchelle, Chuck, Robert, Hunter, Jessie, Mollie, Rex, Rip, Will and Taylor; and six great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held 12 PM, Friday, November 25th, at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA. Burial will follow in Bethany Presbyterian Church, Charles City, VA. The family will receive friends Friday, 10 AM to 12 PM, just prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to Bethany Memorial Association, 3812 Seminary Avenue, Richmond, VA 23227.

“ My sincere condolences to the family for the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort and hope from the Bible promise at Isaiah 25:8 that in the near future God (Psalms 83:18) will eliminate forever, death and the sufferings that it brings. So draw close to God in prayers and lean on Him as you cope during this most difficult time.
