She was a wonderful and loving MeMe to her grandchildren Daniel Thorne, Chelsea Hamrick (Tyler), Tiffany Hockaday, Greg Hockaday, Logan Vaughan, Dylan Thorne-Jeffs, Lucas Holliday; great-grandchildren Briana Shaw, Alayna Keheley, Hunter Hamrick and Owen Hamrick; an aunt Francine Ledford (Calvin), sister-in-law Rose Rhinehart, two nephews Michael and Alan Rhineheart (Jennifer) and many great nephews/nieces, cousins and friends.

Doris was born on May 30, 1948 in Cocke County, TN and moved to Fines Creek, NC at a young age where she learned more about her native American heritage and culture which she used in her daily life with her uncles and aunts that she called her brothers and sisters. She later moved to Poquoson Virginia, where she attended Poquoson High School and met the love of her life George. They were inseparable. They loved going to drive in movie theaters, hanging out at Buckroe Beach and cruising around in the car. They were married May 30, 1964 and set out on a journey after George enlisted into the United States Navy. This journey took them to different places, but they eventually settled down in Providence Forge, Virginia where Doris worked tirelessly as a Foreman at Owens-Illinois Glass bottling plant for Anheuser-Busch for 27+ years. In 1997, she was able to achieve her dream of owning her own house with the love of her life George. In her retirement, Doris spent her time with George going to yard sales, fishing, gardening, having cookouts and spending time with family.

Doris leaves behind a legacy of love, care and connection to her family and friends that will NEVER be forgotten.

In lieu of flowers, any donations can be made to the Charles City Volunteer Rescue Squad. We thank them.

“ Being apart of this family for going on 6 years, meme always treated me as family since the first day I met her. She's always loved seeing the family, Hunter running through the house, and me chasing him. She always said, "Oh, he isn't going to hurt anything." or "George, give that boy some candy." This woman hands down made amazing, out of this world chicken. It was always a delight to have her cooking. She was more than the backbone of the family, she was the glue, support, so on and so on. There is way to many words, the dictionary doesn't even have enough, on what she means, and how much she'll be missed. The life advice she'd give is wisdom I'll truly always hold onto. My heart goes out to everyone, I love you all, I'm thankful to be apart of the family.
