

Earl E. Charity

September 13, 1942 - September 2, 2021

Earl Edward Charity was born on September 13, 1942 raised in Charles City County. He departed this life peacefully on September 2, 2021 surrounded by his family.

Earl had a passion for drag racing. He would spend all day watching Nascar on television. In the early seventies he was one of the first African Americans who raced at the Richmond Dragway. If you ever saw Earl, you would know that his signature look was plaid shirts always with a pen in his top pocket.

He loved spending time with the love of his life Marian. When you saw one, you saw them both. Rarely did they go anywhere without each other. One of his favorite things to do every Sunday morning was hanging with the guys at his brother's house. He also enjoyed surfing the internet and spending time with his grandchildren and great grandchildren. He worked and managed National Garages in Downtown Richmond, while also working at Philip Morris for over 30 years. Upon retirement, Earl started Charity's Towing Company. Earl was preceded in death by his parents, Earl and Annie Charity as well as his brother, Alex "Jit" Charity.

He is survived by his loving and devoted wife, Marian Charity; four children, Erik (Sharnell), Tomiko, Nico (Millie) and Chartae Sr. (Tiffany); six grandchildren, Lavar, Nico Savon, Devonte, Chartae Jr., Madyson and Cameran; three great grandchildren, Lavar Jr., Landon and Layson; four siblings, Herman Charity (Brenda), Roscoe Charity (Etta), Vickie Black (Calvin) and Faye Owhin (Greg); godson, Greg Ohwin; devoted friend and family member, Floyd Allen along with a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

A graveside service will be held 11AM Friday, September 10, 2021 at Gilfield Baptist Church, Charles City, VA. A viewing will be held from 5PM to 7PM Thursday, September 9, 2021 at the funeral home.
