

Mrs. Edith Gannaway Hart

August 31, 1926 - February 21, 2013

COLOGNE- Edith Gannaway Hart, 86, passed away February 21, 2013. Daughter of John Wallace and Edith Crowell Gannaway of Lynchburg. Edie is survived by her husband of 62 years, Robert Presley Hart, Jr.; their four children and spouses, Mike and Martha Hart, Jack and Clyde Hart, all of Cologne, VA, Gina and Frank Kane of Great Falls, VA, and Sara and Stewart Sanders of Durham, NC. She is also survived by nine grandchildren, Tris Jones, John Hart and wife Jennifer, Sam Hart and wife Sallie, Ragan Hart, Robert Hart, Rebecca Hart, Nathan Sanders, Edie Sanders, and Mary Sanders; and great-grandson, William Hart. She is also survived by her only sister, Mary Jane Layne and husband Charlie, of Lynchburg, VA; as well as many nieces and nephews.

Edie was a graduate of E.C. Glass High School and Randolph-Macon Woman's College in Lynchburg. She taught high school English and assisted in the family business, R.P. Hart and Son, but most significantly was a homemaker. Edie was active in her community and her church, Shackelfords Chapel, serving as organist, choir director, youth leader, Sunday School teacher and president of the United Methodist Women for many years. Her life will be celebrated at a memorial service at 6 p.m. on March 2nd at Shackelfords Chapel United Methodist Church.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a memorial donation be made to Shackelfords Chapel UMC, 3727 Buena Vista Rd., Cologne, Box 9, Shackelfords, VA 23156.

“ I have always loved Edy for being a great friend to me and mother to Mike and Jack when we were growing up. I have fond memories of her from youth meetings and just being in her kitchen in Cologne. You left a fine legacy for your family, Edy.

“ Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Hart family with the loss of Edy. She was a life to be celebrated in so many different ways and we are so glad to have been a part of that life. Her loving ways always showed through in her thoughts, deeds and dedication to her community. We will surely miss her "always" smiling face and we know heaven's gate has welcomed her.

“ Cannot find the words to express how sad we are to learn of Edie's passing. So glad we were able to spend some time with you last year. Have so many wonderful memories of our times together in both Virginia and Maine and even Prince Edward Island. Keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers through these very difficult times.
