

Edna Mae Bradby Allmond

April 29, 1932 - November 25, 2020

Edna Mae Bradby Allmond, a member of the Eastern Chickahominy Indian Tribe, and a resident of King William County, went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Wednesday, November 25. She was a loving mother and doting grandmother, a wonderful homemaker, master vegetable gardener, and her southern country cooking and baking was second to none. She has left her family and all who have gathered at her table for a home-cooked meal, a legacy of hospitality and love. For 62 years she was a devoted wife to Floyd L. Allmond, Sr. who preceded her in death. She is survived by 3 children, Floyd L. (Lenny) Allmond, Jr. (Sherry), Rose Mary Stewart (Clinton), and Susan Jackowski; 4 grandchildren, Carrie Graubics (John), Brian Stewart (Crystal), Kim Evelyn (Willie), Courtney Carlton (Robi); 9 great-grandchildren, Rachel Orr (Jonathan), Autumn Adkins, Aidan Stewart, Gavin Stewart, Brady Carlton, Taylor Evelyn, Kinsleigh Evelyn, Anisa Graubics, Alex Graubics; 2 great-great grandchildren, Brooklyn Fitzgerald, Carter Fitzgerald; 2 brothers, Robert W. Adkins III, with whom she had a special bond, and Hubert Adkins; a host of loving nieces and nephews, including a very dedicated niece, Reme Holmes; and a devoted caretaker and friend, Carolyn Harlow, who became family, and brought her much joy. The family would like to extend a special thank you to Riverside Convalescent Center in West Point, VA, and Dr. Ralph Dimattia and the 4th Floor nursing staff at Sentara Williamsburg Regional Medical Center, for their compassionate care of our dear mother and grandmother. A walk through viewing will be held 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday, December 1st with a funeral service following at 2 p.m. at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA 23140. Interment in Samaria Baptist Church Cemetery. Due to Covid-19 precautions seating will be limited, please adhere to all necessary precautions such as wearing a mask and social distancing.

“ So many wonderful memories of Aunt Edna. Always loved visiting her and Uncle Floyd, Rosemary, Lenny and Susie when I was younger. Always will remember the delicious meals, and more than that, the great family love we all shared. We will miss you Aunt Edna, but you will always be loved and never forgotten. Prayers of comfort for the entire family. Love, Linda and Bob Allmond

“ I will always have fond memories of Miss Edna. As a young child she was my babysitter for a short time and although the memories are now a bit fuzzy I can still remember going into the garden with her to “help” pick vegetables and waking early from my naps to always find her in the kitchen prepping the freshly picked vegetables or working on preparing the evening meal. I can also remember her using the CB radio to check on family and friends commuting to and from work. I wish I could be certain but for some reason I think she used Weeping Willow as her CB handle. As I grew older I could count on seeing her every Sunday at Pamunkey Indian Baptist Church and getting a big hug after the service.

Miss Edna will be dearly missed. My condolences to the family.

“ 'Aunt' Edna and 'Uncle' Floyd gave me one of my all-time favorite preaching examples of love.

Very early every morning Uncle Floyd tended the garden before going to work. He was experiencing terrible headaches for several days, so Aunt Edna got up extra early, and when Uncle Floyd got up, she already had finished 90% of what had to be done. The next day Uncle Floyd got up even earlier so that when Aunt Edna got up he had accomplished a good 90% of what had to be done.

It got to the point the two of them sat up waiting for the other one to go to bed.

I think I always knew I wanted someone to love me like that.

Praying peace and blessings for you all as you mourn and celebrate a life well lived.

“ I have so many fond memories of visiting my Aunt Edna and Uncle Floyd. Aunt Edna was a loving, caring person. She also was a great cook, what I remember were her awesome butter beans. Aunt Edna, you will be loved and missed but we will see you again. I know you are happy again in the presence of your Lord, Uncle Floyd and all the loved ones that preceded you.....RIP until we see you again.

From Dawn Custalow,

I remember Aunt Edna. She and Uncle Floyd would come by and see Papa and Grannt, Dewey and Pocahontas when we were there. I also remember seeing them at many homecomings. She was a lovely lady. Prayers to the family at this time.
