“ To the family of mom Pinks , I just don't know where to start my heart is heavy right now. The life we shared together was unremarkable, from your talks, laughs, teaching me to cook certain things those fried cabbage and more. You accepted me in your home at the age of 18 with Brittney and became just like a mother to me then a mother-in-law. Oh boy do I have memories from showing me how to cut those coupons to save money and shop at thrift stores. I will forever miss you and love you Mom Pinks until we meet again Rest In Peace and my in-laws always stay strong and hold on I'm praying for strength and comfort

“ Condolences and prayers to my Wallace cousins in acknowledgment of the passing of their dear mother, Cousin Edna. She holds a very dear place to our family (Carters/Crumps) and especially to my mother Lillian who was more like a sister than cousin. May God bless you all and your memories of fun times with your mother sustain you.

“ Last time I saw Aunt Pinks, she reminded me that she had the same address. Though I never got there physically, she was constantly in my prayers and on my heart. I will never forget this woman who played such a vital role in my younger years. Strong and courageous, she had a kind an generous spirit. I dreamed of her the night of her passing, smiling and giving me a hug. I know now she was saying farewell and that all was good with her soul. She will be forever be in my memories and I look forward to seeing her again one day. Family, be strong and God will take care of you. Remember earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

“ My Aunt Edna was truly one of the strongest women I have ever known. Her faith in God is what sustained her to face the many trials of life. Her life was a true testament of what God can and will do if you totally surrender to Him. I will truly miss all the chats we had and I thank God for giving me such a woman of faith to impart true wisdom and always words of encouragement. I encourage the family to rejoice in Aunt Edna's victory and the crown that she so richly deserves. Be assured this is not "goodbye" but only "see you after while".

Lovingly, Bren

During my many visits with Ms. Edna and when I would stand to leave she would always say very adamantly "sit down, where you going, you ain't gonna do nothing when you get home." That was the funniest thing, and then she would start to laughing, and I would hang around another 30 minutes to an hour. She would never let you go home. And that's only because she loved me and those who visited her so much. She was full of wisdom and I would tell her, often, to write a book because she had so much to give. She was a blessing to behold.

Much love to the family.
