“ I have known Dave since we were kids growing up as next door neighbors. It was a time when nobody locked their houses, and we both spent a lot of time in and out of each other's homes. When Dave went off to school and subsequently into the Air Force we kind of lost touch with each other. We started getting back together more when my family and I moved back into the area in the early 80's. Through the years I could always depend on Dave to help me keep my cars on the road. Dave had a very positive attitude and a great sense of humor. We enjoyed the times when we could get together and get caught up on mutual friends and family. A special memory was when Dave, his wife and daughter attended the West Point High School Reunion at the West Point Country Club. Dave will be sorely missed, and his family is definitely in our prayers.
