“ From the first time I met Ed, I knew he was a man of character and integrity. It meant a great deal to us to know that he thought so highly of our son, Zayne. He seemed to be the patriarch of his family and so loved by all of them. I hope that when I am his age, my children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren love me that much too! He was truly blessed to have such a large family who love him so much! I know he will be missed!

*You have our deepest sympathy,
The Gooden Family.*

“ I don't know how many times I had to sing this song to Dad over the years. So much that it would get on my nerves anytime someone came over and he'd say "Baby Girl come here and sing my song", never realizing one day I wouldn't sing it to him anymore.

Dad, there is so much I could say. Thank you for everything and trusting me with Lori Montgomery. I promise to do right by her, take care of her, love her not only as my sister but as my other daughter, friend, etc.

The legacy you've left will live on forever. As I listen to this song, it rings so true. I have never been able to hear it without thinking of you.

To the first man in my life, my first love, my old man, my dad, my daddy, my friend and my hero. You loved me since I was born but I have and will continue to love you my whole life. Rest easy, ole' man. I love you and will miss you every day.
