“ John and I have been very close friends since the age of 14. I remember when he first met Eileen, he was so happy and excited. It was such a joy to watch the two of them come together and eventually get married. Eileen brought out the very best in John and had a special affect on anybody she was around, which is evident in the close loving family that they raised. She will be missed and fondly remembered by by all of the lives she touched. Me and my family will always remember her as the loving God mother to our children Will and Jennifer. John, Katie, and Troy, while your wife and mother has gone on to be with the Lord she will always be with you in in her love.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all,

Love Rich, Lisa, Will, and Jennifer Klein
