“ Joey and family, it's hard to express my feelings over this loss. Lisa was a dear and true friend. Having grown up in church with Lisa and through other social events, Lisa was a great person to be associated with. Let the sweet memories she made for each of the three of you carry through the days, months and years ahead. Lisa my friend, RIP! 💔

“ My kids were also Lisa's kids during their childhood. She was a kid at heart which is why she was such a genuinely sweet and caring person. It's hard to find people today with such a huge heart. Joey and family - my heart is broken for you. May God wrap his loving arms around you and bring you peace.

“ Lisa and I have known one another for years and years. She used to babysit for me and we worked together with children twice for lengthy periods. She was the expert crafter and I was the writer. She was funny and compassionate and concerned first about the needs of others. We shared a sense of humor as well as a love for flamingos. She was a dear friend and I will remember our years of experiences forever. Love her and all of her family. ❤️
