

Elizabeth "Betty" Grace Sturtz Ward

November 20, 1936 - August 29, 2021

Elizabeth "Betty" Grace Sturtz Ward, 84, of West Point, VA passed away August 29, 2021. She was born November 20, 1936 to the late Stanley and Julia Sturtz.

Betty dearly loved her family and animals. She enjoyed sitting on her porch, watching game shows, riding around town, and going to McDonald's to get an iced tea, then parking in the parking lot to "watch people."

Betty was preceded in death by her husband of 31 years, Emmett Willis Ward, "the Pepsi man"; a son, Mark; and brothers, Stanley Jr., Edward, Thomas, Herbert, Richard, Joseph and David (Charlie) Sturtz; and two sisters, Mary Theresa and Helen.

She is survived by a daughter, Kelly (John); sisters, Virginia Kopacki and Mary Ann Wolcott; and sisters-in-law, Jeanie Sturtz and Marguerite Sturtz; and eight grandchildren who lovingly called her "Grama", "Mima", "Meems" and "the Maw", Luke, Colby, Tristan, Logan, Aidan, Belle, Arica and Travis; great grandchildren, Kaitlyn, Alana, Breanna, Leah and Skylar; many nieces and nephews; and a good neighbor and friend, Linda Knight.

A memorial service will be held 6 p.m. Friday, September 24th at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th St., West Point. The family will receive friends 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. prior to the service.
