“ I have so many wonderful memories of Mama Lois. She was like a second Mother to me. I came to be part of the family through my best friend of 45 years Suzette. I always enjoyed going to her house to hang out or spending the night with Sue. Christmas was one of my favorite times to visit. She decorated her house so beautifully and always had friends and family coming by to visit and chat. With her death our world has gotten a little darker, but the sky a little brighter. She is so very loved and will be missed greatly.

To my adopted family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I pray God will give you strength and comfort during this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Love and blessings,

Melody
