“ Dear Shirley & family,
We are so sorry to hear of Gene's passing. Many friends and extended family share your loss. His ready smile, easygoing personality and sense of humor will be missed by all who knew him. He wasn't just a cousin, he was a true friend. As you and your family celebrate his life, may hope, faith and many happy memories sustain you through this difficult time.

Love,
Frank & Jean Carlton

“ Shirley and family, I am so sorry to hear of Gene's passing. I am sorry I will not be able to be there Friday for the celebration of his life. He was a really great man. I enjoyed working and talking with Gene at Philip Morris. Please know you and your family will be in my prayers. Take care. Debby & Larry Miller.

I will always remeber the fun I had at your house as a kid. I am truly blessed that's children got to know my Uncle Genie like I did . We will miss you every day . Sending the rest of the family my hugs and prayers.
