“ Our hearts are broken over the loss of our beloved cousins. She was tiny in size, tell you what was on her mind and a heart of gold. She has left many cherished memories spent at the cottage crabbing, seashell hunting and soaking up the sun.

“ I went through school with Eva; graduating from Varina in 1960. I always was taken by having conversations with her. She had that sweet "southern" drawl; enticing personality. We talked on the phone several times over the years; but most recently she had called me regarding another h.s. classmate who had fallen and was at home rehabilitating. We talked at length about Real Estate and property values knowing I am a Realtor. God bless her and her family; may you find peace in the coming days and forever. Sandra Wiltshire Seelmann
