“ I remember everything...from when Aunt Evelyn made cheesy chicken wings, and encouraged me to eat so many that when i went to the carnival that night and rode a roller coaster ride, threw up after I got off. Or when I use to hide her cartons of cigarettes. She use to always take care of me when I came.

So happy she is in a better place. Proud of my loving Uncle Edward who serves as a model of what being a father is, and loving husband. Hope you and the family stay strong.

Sad because I wish I could be there one last time to see her.

I love you all.

“ The memories I have of Aunt Evelyn bring me joy. My brother used to hide things from her...this drove my aunt crazy, but deep down I think she was entertained. Whenever I asked for the time, Aunt Evelyn always said, "It's time for all dogs to be dead, aren't you glad you're a puppy? Even if I asked her that five times in a row (which I sometimes did as a little kid) she would indulge me and answer with the same saying. Aunt Evelyn, I'll miss asking you for the time. I'll always cherish the time we had with you.

*To Bother Finn and Family, Words seem inadequate but know they are from the heart my. Evelyn was a such a classy lady and always had kind words to encourage you.
She was not afraid to voice her opinion when needed. She was always willing to help family, friends and even strangers. Her warm spirit will certainly be missed. I know Our father has welcomed her with open arms and she is experiencing complete rest while singing with the heavenly choir. Keeping the family in prayer 🙏

“ Aunt Evelyn remains the most beautiful woman I have ever known. Her beauty was not only physical; she exuded beauty in everything she did. We share a love of reading and often talked about books. One of my favorite memories was of her teaching me to make her famous potato salad. I had commented so many times on how her potato salad was so good it was the only potato salad I would eat, that she finally taught me how to make it! I cherish every memory of my Aunt Evelyn and will forever Love her!

“ God’s added a beautiful flower to His garden.

My favorite memories are related to enjoying Evelyn singing in the choir. I didn’t get to hear her as often as I would have liked, however, it was always joyful and pleasurable when I did hear her.

Death may have claimed Evelyn but she’s alive in my heart.
