“ Always loved my Aunt Fay. I remember going to their house on the Mattaponi and going swimming and having cookouts, fish fries, roasted oysters with our cousins. I remember going to see the first color TV at their house. Always loved going to see Charlie and Fay and their kids. Fay made the best homemade banana ice cream! Fay loved sewing and I got to wear some of the dresses she handed down to me that she made for Nancy! You always felt welcome in their home. One of my favorite aunts!

“ I'm sorry to see this news. I enjoyed my conversations with Faye over the years as we would run into each other shopping or eating out. I also have childhood memories of our families spending time together. Fay lived her life to the full and I know you will all have many memories to enjoy. I pray that those memories provide peace and even smiles as you adjust to this new transition in life. Blessings, Michele Smith
