“ I have very special memories Aunt Florence, but that really stands out to me was the beautiful luncheon she gave for my bridal party the day I was married to Ken Taylor. She was such a gracious loving lady and even though I am far away her presence will be missed. May God hold you close and be your comfort as you work through this time of grief.

“ *Dear family,
I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Florence.
She was such a dear sweet lady. I always looked forward to seeing her at the Hair Cottage in Providence Forge until she moved to Mechanisville.
I've know Florence and Paul since the 60's I was a student at New Kent High School.
I will cherish all of my memories of our times together.
My heartfelt sympathy to all of you.
