“ It's so hard to say good by to someone who has been a big part of your life. He was a great brother in law. One who always had a smile through it all.He loved his family and we his family loved him. Each time we lose one of our loved ones, a part of us goes with them. But this is not good by, just saying see you soon . May God bring comfort and peace during this hard time and in the days to come

“ Whenever I lost a tooth, when I was little, he would always fill my hands with his pocket change. But two years ago, he rode with me to Randy's homecoming. We talked and laughed all the way there and all the way back. That meant the world to me. I'll always love my brother and miss him terribly. 🙏❤️😞

“ Frankie (or as I always called him “Frankie Poo”) was one of the sweetest, nicest, caring people I’ve ever known. I am truly blessed to have been a part of his life and to have had him as a part of mine. I’ll always love and miss him.
