“ It just dawned on me to search for Freda on the internet. I wanted to reach out to her, so I will do so here to her family if they are still monitoring this page. I have the Beta Sigma Phi 75TH anniversary cookbook. Shortly after receiving it in 2005, I found her recipe for chicken enchilada dip. I have made it likely a hundred times. I love it and every one I serve it to loves it. The most recent time I made it was 9/9/23 for my son and his fiancé's wedding reception. They specifically asked me to make it and serve it to all of our family and friends. It was a hit again, as always. I made one modification and used miracle whip instead of mayonnaise, and that was only because I had never used mayo before. We LOVE it that way. God speed to Freda and I thank her for her recipe and will continue to make, serve and eat it.

“ The passing of dear friend Freda is a terrible loss to all privileged to have known this fine lady. I met Freda in 1965 on Okinawa when I accepted the assignment of Director of the Labor Department in the U.S. Civil Administration. Freda was admired by all for her professional skills and diplomacy while serving our country in an important position under extremely sensitive circumstances. I returned to Okinawa while serving in another capacity and enjoyed the company of Freda and her late husband Bob...In later years we communicated but saw each other only several times, I'm sorry to say. Freda will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her, and our hearts go out to her family.
