“ Dear Audrey, Phil and I only found out yesterday, July 3rd that your dear Paul went to see Jesus and Mary, my eyes filled with tears when Phil told me. It has been so many years since I have seen you and your dear husband. I am so very sorry for your loss, I wish that we had known I know that Phil would have been on the next plane out to be with you and your family. My family grew in the love of the Lord and his Dearest Blessed Mother after we came to a prayer rosary group you hosted at your home, our lives have not been the same since, thank you for sharing your love of Mary and Jesus with us. I, also remember a funny time when we hosted a rosary group in our home and were boiling spaghetti noodles and you threw a noodle at the cabinet to see if it was done, my daughter Jenni and I still remember that and today both said we would never forget that. I am sending love and prayers to you and yours, May our Dearest Lord Jesus and his Dearest Mother hold you up, once again, I am so very sorry for your loss, Paul was a most awesome, kind, loving, caring, gentleman. Mary A. Peloquin of Colorado Springs, Colorado (and my husband Phil)

“Dear Audrey, It's really hard to fathom that Paul is no longer with us. Like you, Paul was a big part of my life for about sixty years. Early on, when I moved to Milford at the age of ten, we played together in American Legion baseball. We worked for Gene Mayer, hauling hay, rousing potatoes, and discussing philosophy. We played Milford High School sports, and after our brief college careers, Paul lived with me and my parents for over a year in Salt Lake. I got Paul a job selling Florsheim Shoes for Al Holman, we worked there in the daytime. Paul worked a second job at the Twilight Lounge as a bartender. He eventually hired on with Behr Manning Company "selling sandpaper". His travel with them led his meeting you, and the rest in history. Our business venture with Salt Lake Telephone, even with the unexpected ending, was a great experience. Playing lots of golf with you and Paul at the Beaver Tournament, Milford and elsewhere are truly treasured memories. I'm truly sorry for your loss. I'll really miss him. I hope that in the future when you are in Salt Lake that you will stop in and stay with Jolie and I.

Love always, Dave Bown

“ Paul was a true ambassador for Christ in his contacts with those he encountered. He was so good-natured and kind, and we will never forget him. For his employer, he brought us doughnuts in making his rounds, but it was his engaging personality and people skills that endeared him to us. Gary M. Williams, Clerk, Sussex County Circuit Court

“ Dear Audrey,
Please accept our sincere condolences,
We are deeply saddened by the news about the death of Paul. We are so very sorry. This must be very difficult for you. Please remember that you are in our thoughts and our prayers.
Paul was such a special and kind soul, who will be greatly missed by all who knew him. We will miss his helpful advice and a cheering smile, his reassuring words of hope and care. We thank Our Lord for this great blessing of meeting Paul on our life's path. He was, and always will be, a great example of Christ's love and charity to us. I remember the time when we first met at the Bishop's place, and the wonderful time of prayer and spiritual conversations we had, I remember just how I wanted this moment to halt at that time, so it will never end. My heart was burning with love for God! Now I think about how much we will miss him.
I know how much you will miss Paul, but you can take comfort and strength from the wonderful family you and he had together. I know their love will get you through this difficult time. I would like to offer our help to you in anything we could do, and our sincere prayers for his beautiful soul and for you and all family.
May God bless you and your family during this time and always,
Lesia Slawomir, Josaphat, and all family

“ *Dearest Audrey,
Thank you for sharing Paul so graciously on the many trips and phone conversations. I am truly at a loss for words to adequately express what this gentle giant meant to me and the many who were graced by his presence. Over 20 years have passed from our first meeting to now. It has been an honor and privilege to have laughed, prayed and shared with him. He's dried a few of my tears and at times when I really needed it, he has gently and lovingly reprimanded me and, because it was Paul, I listened. He never led me astray and helped me stay on course. Audrey, run to Jesus and Mary often because in their embrace, you will find Paul's embrace.
Yours in the light and love of Jesus and Mary

“ Paul was a happy warrior for Christ and will always be an inspiration. He fulfilled his quest to see Heaven. In his gentle and unassuming way he reminded us of the power of prayer and faith. Paul especially rekindled in us the awareness and understanding of the Blessed Mother's love for us and the gift of the Rosary. Paul's blessings in his life enriched us all.

To Audrey and family, you have our love and prayers.

“ Paul was a masterful warrior of prayer, a Disciple of Christ, and if this were possible, the first Apostle of Bishop Danylak, my dear friend, too. I pray for an immense heaven for him. I will never forget him greeting myself and two others wearing a rose-colored shirt, as we boarded the car to Josyp Terelya's funeral where I sang. This was my last physical soul-to-soul contact with Paul. He is great in Heaven. I've been seeing gold tassels on a white garment when I think of him. Our Lady was Sovereign Queen over his life and came for him on her Great Feast of the Sacred Heart ... on her Saturday. May God reward him, and may he envelope the whole world through the power of the Divine Will that he sees completely now. He had a great ride here and has an even more immense eternal one. Thank you, Paul, for standing strong in the Faith.

I do desire to attend the funeral if I am still in Colorado. Please apprise me of details.

Audrey, may the Holy Spirit fill you every moment with His comfort and guidance and sure knowing Paul is free of pain. It is just Joy now. Our Lady bless and keep you!

“ Dear Audrey, It wasn't supposed to happen this way! I'm not sure exactly how it should have happened, but not this way. Maybe the other four of the "Big Five" could have been there to huddle up for the last time to outline the final play for G. Paul to "slam down a dunk" (LOL.) More likely, the infamous "fadeaway into the bleachers jump-shot" for the winning score. That line is only funny to the guys who were there to watch it, but he did fall into the bleachers one time. And I know you believe this because you have witnessed many examples of his "grace and refinement" when he gets into His World. Or, maybe his demise could have come when he enlivened us with his dissertation on love and marriage as he backed into and overturned one of the mobile beverage carts at the wedding rehearsal luncheon in El Paso.

I so wish I could be with you right now. Your hubby was one of my guys and you are one of my gang members. We need to stick together and I will see you soon.

I am so sorry for your loss. I am so sorry for all our loss.

Love, Denny
