“ It is with great sadness that I offer my sincere condolences to the Paige and Harris families. Thomas Curtis (Satch) and I served together for many years in the Virginia Air National Guard and their daughter Jeneice was one of the best 911 dispatchers that worked with me in Hanover - the family are in my thoughts and prayers. I am sorry I missed Gail's service - what a legacy she leaves for her children and grandchildren. May God continue to bless and keep the Paige family in His watch care...to God be the Glory and may He forever be praised! We are all but a whisper of smoke that passes through this life so quickly into the next...Romans 8:38-39

“ Gail was a really sweet person that was quiet but smiled a lot. I can't even remember seeing her mad or upset. She was the kind of person that would laugh at other people cutting up. She was supportive and helpful. We had so much fun and laughter at school. I will always remember her with her glasses on smiling. The world would be a better place with more people like her. RIP classmate.

“ Dear Paige family,
Like so many the news of Gail's passing has left us with mixed emotions, On the one hand, we celebrate her life with us and her new life in heaven with Our Lord. Yet. On the other hand, her passing leaves a void in the hearts of many. Please know that the thoughts and prayers of the Hathaway family and New Covenant Community Church are with you today, and in the days to come. I am convinced that from somewhere beyond the veil of this life, Gail is still watching over her family and cheering you on.

“ Family, the loss of a loved one is so hard to bare. As close knit as you all were and will continue to be each of you now has the responsibility of sharing the love and memories that Gail shared and left behind. May that love comfort each of you now and in the days to follow.
