

George Hopkins Guy Jr.

December 14, 1934 - January 6, 2014

George H. Guy, Jr., 79, passed away at his home in West Point, Monday morning on January 6, 2014.

Born and raised in King William County, George grew up in Beulahville and spent his formative years working in his parents' country store—"Guy's Store." He graduated from King William High School in 1952. He left to attend Fishburne Military Academy, Roanoke College and then in Cordell Hull School of Law at Cumberland University in Tennessee before returning to West Point where he practiced law 53 years. George was known as a fierce trial attorney during his career and enjoyed investing in real estate as much as practicing law. He also enjoyed his time spent on the West Point Town Council and in the Jaycees.

George was preceded in death by his parents, George and Margaret Guy. He is survived by his wife of 21 years, Shirley M. Guy; three children, Hopkins Guy and his wife, Liz of Saratoga, CA, Peggy Guy and her husband Joe Jernigan, Edward Guy and his wife, Holly of Bayside, NY; two stepchildren, Lisa M. Pearson and her husband, Bryan, and W. Scott Moore and his wife, Stephanie He is also survived by six grandchildren, Sarah, Louise, Sam, William, Lila and Lily Guy; and four step grandchildren, Matthew and Andrew Moore, Diana P. Muntean and Laura P. Hardwick and two step great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held 1 p.m. Saturday, January 11th at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, VA 23181. Burial will follow in Signal Hill

Memorial Park, Hanover, VA. The family will receive friends 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at the funeral home.

“ Dear Shirley

I was sadden when Bea brought me the message that your husband passed. I have a few fond memories of you two. George has been by our family since 1962. I benefitted from the visits in your home and the interchange of insight on life of yesterday, ,today, and tomorrow . May you find comfort in the Bible's promise of the resurrection at Acts 24:15. With sympathy. Vivian
