“ Ray was a good man that deeply loved his family. He kindly welcomed my siblings & I into his family after his marriage to my mother. He was a man of few words but I can still recall his laughter while having a few beers after a day out on the boat. Captain Ray, we called him. He loved to have a good time & deserved every minute of it! I miss him & pray for Jennifer & all of Ray’s grandchildren during these difficult times.

“ The 1st time I met Ray was when I went fishing on his boat w his stepdaughter. I was eager to make a good impression & actually hooked a big fish while trolling for tuna. His 1st words to me were “boy, u better not lose that f-ing fish!” Over an hour of struggle, we finally reeled it in. After that, we were cool. I was one of the boys! He was a great man of few words! We will miss him!

“ Dodge ball, cowboys and Indians, tag, Red Light, crack the whip, mother-may-I are a few of the games I remember playing on Cheatham Drive with Ray and Judy, and our neighborhood gang. He was fun then and I am certain he remained so throughout his life. Thinking of Faye and Nancy and all of his family with love and sympathy.

“ Jennifer and family, we are so sorry to hear this sad news. As you know, we had some great times with Ray Ray at the Gwynn's Island Boatel and later at The Narrows Marina, fishing and having fun. Many great memories to last a lifetime. We will miss seeing him here but know that we will meet again. Godspeed, Ray Ray, fair winds old friend and R.I.P. Tom and Lynn Blatt

He and his wife, at the time, were our 1st neighbors. Ray & Judy were always so close and the times we spent together will be in my memories forever. Riding back & forth to Richmond to work at 5am were trips that we all shared together & laughed and spent time will all be memories I'll never forget. His daughter, Jennifer was like my own and I loved her so much & still do. She has been like a rock to her daddy, her children, her mother and the family & I know Ray was a parent she'll always miss. Ray was a real friend to my husband & they spent a lot of times, hunting, fishing, working & just hanging out with each other. I feel he's hashing out old times with him right now. I'll always remember his sweet smile and I pray he will rest in peace forever. Brenda Hundley
