

Gina Mayhew

March 15, 1961 - May 11, 2012

Mayhew, Gina Daniel, 51, went to sing in the Angels choir after a brief but intense struggle with colon cancer on May 11, 2012. She was born in Richmond, Virginia, the daughter of Willie Daniel Jr. and Rita Zolner Daniel Black. Gina was an Alumni of Varina High School, class of 1978. She was the essence of the Southern Belle, who passionately championed her causes with grace and charm, using a strong hand in a velvet glove. A gifted singer and accomplished performer, she lived to sing and loved to share her gifts and talents with others. In addition to leading her own band, Gina graced the stage as front person for the Continentals and as co-host for the Hometown Music Radio Broadcast show, to name a few, and performed at many festivals and venues. Gina sang a lead solo part for the Richmond Pops ensemble at the Landmark Theatre for 2 seasons. Preceded to heaven by her parents, Gina leaves behind her loving and devoted Husband, Marvin F.(Buddy) Mayhew Jr., her son Joshua Hunter Lackey, and his Dad Mark Lackey, her best friend and sister Brigitta Andrews; niece and nephew Jade and Zachary; brother Mark Daniel , (Joanne); nieces and nephew Carrie, Abby, Ginny, Grace, Claire, and Mark Jr.; brother Peter Daniel (Lisa); niece Kelly; brother Stuart Daniel,(Deanna); nephews Willie, John, and Corey. The family expresses their special Thanks to her true and faithful friends Mrs. Tammi Kid, and Mrs. Kathleen Pitcher, and her many fans, along with her friends of the Richmond musical community. Friends will be welcomed and Thanks given to the Lord for Gina, at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge,

Virginia, on Friday May 18, 2012, from 2 to 4 & 6 to 8 pm., and Saturday May 19, 2012 from 12 noon, with a service of remembrance to be held there, at 2 pm. Our Grief over her passing is balanced by the knowledge that she now sings with the Angels. Tributes may be posted at www.vincentfh.com.
