“ I am so sorry that your husband lost his fight, but he had been through so much He was one of my favorite patients. No matter how bad he felt, he could still manage to brighten my day. He was tough and feisty, but a softie at heart. I always enjoyed seeing you both. He is at peace - may God grant you peace as well. Linda Manz(Dr Morgan's nurse)

“ May the God of all comfort be with you during this time of deep sorrow and may you be comforted and have hope in the promised paradise earth recorded in the Bible at Revelation 21:3-5 where it reads: "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." 5 And the One seated on the throne said: "Look! I am making all things new." Also, he says: "Write, because these words are faithful and true."

Sincere condolences for your loss.

Glenn was truly a brave man. He took up the fight against cancer with a zeal and courage I have never seen. And how well he fought that fight. He was an inspiration to all who were fortunate to know him. But before and throughout that fight, his was a life filled with love and laughter - a laugh which we will all still hear when memories of Glenn come to us, along with a vision of his great smile. People like Glenn seem to be sent from God to make our lives fuller, happier, and more meaningful. He caused us all to be better than we were before we met him. He will be missed by all who loved him. Marie...we send you our love and deepest sympathy. No man could have had a better partner in life, and in his long battle. You are the gold standard, Marie. We send you and all the children our love. Katherine & Al
