

Gordon V. Taylor

July 30, 1936 - February 17, 2016

Gordon V. Taylor, 79, of New Kent, VA passed away February 17, 2016. He was the son of the late Gordon and Virginia Taylor. Gordon was an avid sportsman especially enjoying bass tournaments, duck hunting and a passion for flying radio control airplanes. Gordon was the owner of Taylor's Taxidermy. He is survived by two sisters Nancy Renalds (Hugh) and Virginia "Ginny" Hartung (Homer); nieces Nan Carneal, Donna Dalton and Ginger Hinson; and a nephew Patrick Renalds. A memorial service will be held 3 p.m. Sunday, February 21st Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Tail, Providence Forge, VA 23140.

Tribute Wall

DT

“ My Dad and I flew R/C airplanes with Gordon back in the 1960's. I worked at Bob's Hobby Center in Richmond and would see Gordon there many times. He was always nice, a bit on the quiet side but had a great sense of humor. I am sorry to hear of his passing. We will keep him and his family in our prayers.

Dick Tyndall Mechanicsville, Va.

Dick Tyndall - February 20, 2016 at 10:07 AM

JM

“ Nancy, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers as you grieve the loss of your brother, Gordon. Thank God for the many wonderful family memories made over the years, which you can all hold in your hearts forever. Love & Blessings, Joan Middleton

Joan Middleton - February 20, 2016 at 09:47 AM

JR

“ John & Victoria K. Roane lit a candle in memory of Gordon V. Taylor

John & Victoria K. Roane - February 20, 2016 at 07:27 AM