“Helen was a wonderful, kind, considerate woman. I remember she would call my home phone thinking it was her brothers. I would say hello , and as soon as I did, she would laugh and say I did it again ,didn't I? I told her I didn't mind I loved talking to her. (her brother (Raymond) had the same number as mine, just that last number was different. We would laugh and talk for a few, then I would tell her ok Helen until next time. I miss that. RIP lovely lady. God be with her family 🙏

“At one of my yard sales a surprise visit from Aunt Helen and Uncle Percy. My husband Junie said I bet you'll straighten up now. 😊
The most recent memory is Aunt Helen said I made her laugh. Her days were long and hard for me and the rest of the family to endure, so I'll treasure making her laugh. Will always love and miss you AUNT HELEN.
