

Henry Greenough Thorndike Jr.

June 27, 1946 - December 23, 2018

Henry Greenough "Hank" Thorndike Jr, died peacefully but unexpectedly on December 22, 2018. He is survived by his beloved wife, Janice; and his daughters Olivia and Catherine, who were the center of his world. He is also survived by his sisters Sue, Evie, Anne (Bill) and Sally (Tony); his brother Andy (Nancy); sisters-in-law Gail and Jo; brother-in-law Bert (Betty) and the many, many nieces, nephews, and cousins that he adored. Hank was preceded in death by his parents, Henry Greenough "Harry" Thorndike and Carolyn Fredrika "Freda" Thorndike, and his sisters Alice and Olivia.

Hank was born on June 27, 1946 in Richmond, VA and grew up on his family farm, Magnolia, in Wicomico Church, VA. He graduated from Staunton Military Academy and attended West Virginia University and Clemson University, where he was a member of the rugby team. Always someone who loved the outdoors, Hank started his work life on the family farm and was a farrier in western Virginia and West Virginia for 10 years. In 1987, Hank opened his marine construction business, Dockmasters, and spent the next 30 years serving many wonderful clients (many who became dear friends) and happily mentoring his young crew. Hank was a faith filled man and a longtime member of Providence Forge Presbyterian Church.

Hank was known for his huge heart, warm hugs, and the mischievous twinkle in his eye. He was always taking care of others, quick to lend a hand to those in need. Hank was happiest surrounded by his girls, pets, and his boisterous extended family. He loved working on his daily crossword puzzle, having friends and neighbors over to pick crabs or roast oysters, and sailing his boat, the Vokka Lokka, on the Chesapeake Bay.

Visitation will be on Friday, December 28, at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th St, West Point, VA 23181 from 2 to 5 p.m. A memorial service will be held 11 a.m., Saturday, December 29, also at Vincent's West Point location, with a reception immediately following at Wallace Manor 3821 N. Courthouse Rd, Providence Forge, VA 23140. In lieu of flowers, a donation to the King William Regional Animal Shelter, Box 215, King William, VA 23086 or Providence Forge Presbyterian Church, PO Box 239, Providence Forge, VA 23140 would be welcome.

“ Hank was big part of my life growing up. He would come up the Quailhill and we went to camp Waradaca(?) together I would go down to Wicomico church and visit him, generally take the greyhound bus down. We were always getting in trouble together, fortunately we only got caught for about 10% of what we did. I remember one time at camp we rigged all the toilets so when somebody flushed them they would get squirted with the fill pipe, we thought that was great fun. I remember we were around 14 or 15 down at the farm smoking and drinking Uncle Harry's liquor, great fun until the next morning. Anyway, Hank I'll miss you.

“ Hank, I'm not sure where to start, buddy. You helped to mold so many of us as kids into hard working young men. I have known you for as long as I can remember, yet your lessons about work ethic are my fondest memories that I carry. They helped mold me into the man I am today. I love and miss you, you will always hold a place in my heart. My deepest sympathies to Janice, Catherine and Olivia. Words cannot express my sorrow for your loss.

I've been thinking about Hank a lot these last few days, remembering many wonderful times we had at Quailhill and Magnolia. One in particular stands out as typical of Hank's joy of life. I was down at Magnolia for my annual visit and it was during hay season. At the time they were using a baler that would throw the bales into the wagon and we would stack the bales. Hank's idea was for me to catch the bales in the air then hand the bale to him. It sounded like a good idea to a 12 year old so I tried it, oh yeah, it knocked me on my butt big time. Nonetheless, good old big brother Hank persuaded me to try again. Yup, same result and laughed about it all summer and brings a chuckle to me now. Rest in peace my friend/cousin/brother.

Hank, It is so terribly hard to tell you and your girls how much I will miss you through the coming weeks and years. We did not sail together enough or eat enough crabs and oysters together or drink enough beer together. Now you are gone and we will have to wait until we join our spirits together in the heavens. I will miss you every day until that day arrives. Bon Voyage my spiritual brother...til then, Ken
