

Herbert Scott Christian III

April 28, 1959 - October 28, 2022

Herbert Scott Christian III, 63 entered into eternal rest on Oct. 28, 2022. He was born on April 28, 1959 to the late Herbert S. Christian Sr. and Arnella (Ardie) Christian of Charles City, VA.

Herbert attended and graduated from Charles City High School in 1977. Afterwards, he completed the Mortuary Science program at John Tyler Community College and went on to start a long career in mortuary science working for several funeral establishments throughout the state of Virginia. Herbert finished his career working in the hospitality industry. However, he continued his passion in mortuary science by servicing and counselling families in their time of need.

Herbert had an additional passion for ancestry and genealogy that traced our family's ancestry back to the 17th century. He was instrumental in assisting with the research used to write the history of James and Keziah Charity (The Big Green Book) and helped hundreds of people through Ancestry.com connections connect with their ancestral roots in Charles City County. Herbert was preceded in death by his father Herbert S. Christian, Jr.

He is survived by his devoted mother Arnella (Ardie) Christian, sisters Sharon Christian and Julie Christian, brother Brent Christian (Kristie), niece Tiffany Christian, nephews Miles Christian and Tyler Christian, uncles Edmond

Christian (Rebecca), aunts Angie Parker and Ruth Christian as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

A funeral service will be held at 1PM on Thursday, Nov 3, 2022 at Vincent Funeral Home Chapel in Providence Forge, VA. Viewing will be held prior to service from 11AM to 1PM. Interment will follow at Cedar Grove Baptist Church Cemetary, Providence Forge, VA.

“ Dear Christian family,
The prayers and thoughts of the Hathaway family are with you as you celebrate Herbert's life with us and his new life in heaven. He touched so many lives and leaves a legacy for all of us who seek to make a difference in the life of our community. I pray that you find comfort in knowing death is not the end of life. It is merely a pause in our earthly life as we transition to eternal life. You can be sure that Herbert is safe in the presence of God and watching over each of you.

“ I am gonna miss my oldest brother Herbert III(Herbie). When I got the call on Friday that he had transitioned on there are no words to describe the pain and heartache. He was that guy who called his mom twice a day to make sure she was okay. He was always looking out for others and he gave his all. I will miss the talks around the kitchen table. His absence is being felt daily by us but we know that God always takes the best home.

“ Aunt Ardie and Family, I am so, so sorry about Herbie's passing. He was such a quiet, humble person and will be missed by all who knew and loved him. I didn't see him often, but he was not only my cousin, but a friend also. I remember the last time I saw him. We were all sitting around your kitchen table. He will truly be missed. I pray that God will give you peace and strength to get through this trying time.

“ To Ardie & her family my heart aches for all of you because as you know I have lived this moment and I pray every day when I hear about someone I really know and have been apart of our family it really just bring back the hurt and pain I know you are feeling but just know God is good and he knows our heart and he will always be looking and sending all his Love down to us so we can heal and be strong and keep the faith and everything will get better . God be with all you until we meet again. Love You Hattie Christian Brooks & Family.

“ I want to express my most heartfelt condolences to Herbert's dear mother and siblings. Though we've never met, I've heard much of you! I've been privileged to have known Herbert for more than half a decade, and in that time I've known him to be one of the most gentle, wise, generous, selfless, gracious, and trustworthy individuals I've ever been fortunate enough to cross paths with. He always put others before himself and he gave freely to anyone, sometimes before they were even aware of their own need. He did this for friends and complete strangers equally. He was truly one of the finest hoteliers, and highest examples of a gentleman, and my world is now much poorer for his absence in it. My deepest condolences and respects extend to his family.
