

Hung "Savio" Vuong Duong

March 16, 1959 - December 30, 2016

Hung "Savio" Vuong Duong, 57, of West Point, Virginia passed away December 30, 2016.

Savio was a plumber working with his brother, Quy, and worked for Q. T. Duong Plumbing for 40 years. He loved to cook and was an avid Redskin fan. Savio was a very generous person always giving far more than he received. He loved his family and enjoyed spending time with them.

He was preceded in death by his parents Jian Duong and An Bui and a sister Mai Huynh.

Savio is survived by his wife of 27 years Donna; four children Savio, Maria, Jade and Jasmine; his step-mother Khieu Dinh; his sisters Hoa Duong, Phuong Duong and Huong Bui; brothers Quy Duong, Dung Duong and Vang Duong.

A funeral mass will be held 11 a.m. Wednesday, January 4th at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church, 3570 King William Avenue, West Point, VA 23181. The family will receive friends Tuesday 6 to 8 p.m. with a rosary beginning at 5 p.m. at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, VA 23181.

The family requests memorial donation be made to the Savio Duong Fund to help with funeral expenses payable to: Donna Duong, Memo- Duong Memorial Fund sent to the Bank of Essex, PO Box 859, West Point, VA 23181.

“ For Savio:

*I can never express the grief I feel
A part of me has passed
I depended on you and your Family
And you were there for me
Because the Judge ruled it had to be.
No others would I rather
Trust my kids to, since I had to,
And no better a relationship forged
We grew to know and love you
Though we grew apart
You'll always be in my heart.
Thank you, Savio & Donna!!! Love you all!

“ Savio was always advising me to respect and love my parents more than I already did, and he was one of the kindest, deepest people I've had the pleasure to know. I'm sorry we weren't closer friends because he was a pleasure to be around. He was a wonderful example to me and lived his faith effortlessly. My heart goes out to Donna and their children, his family and many friends. Bless all of you who loved him! ”
