

Irving Frank Becker

January 1, 1928 - March 27, 2015

Frank Becker, 87, of New Kent, VA passed away Friday, March 27, 2015. He was a Navy veteran serving in World War II and the Korean Conflict. Frank loved to work and had a passion for horses.

Frank was preceded in death by his wife Dot Becker; a daughter Dell Kaser; and two grandsons Robert Cano and R. J. Flesher. He is survived by a daughter Ede Silva; six granddaughters Michele Collins, Angela Guthas, Tracy Ferring, Lisa Coffield, Shannon Rivera, Natalie Battilana; one grandson Tony Silva, Jr.; twenty-one great grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

A private family memorial service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

NS

“ I am so sorry to learn of Uncle Irving's passing. I know he went by Frank, but he will always be Uncle Irving to me. It was always a fun time when he just appeared unannounced at our door for a visit. I will always cherish those memories.

*Nancy Becker Smith
(Arthur Becker's daughter)*

Nancy Smith - December 04, 2015 at 11:57 AM

NB

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Norman Bommarito - March 29, 2015 at 07:39 PM

NB

“ In loving memory of PA ! May you shine brightly in the heavens above and be comforted by our lords glory . you left us many great memories in our hearts that will be cherished by many . my thoughts and prayers are with everyone in the family.

Norman Bommarito - March 29, 2015 at 07:36 PM