“ It’s been years since I’ve seen Jacob, but my oh my was he a sweet little guy (about 6 years old). My heart pours out to Tucker, his mother and the rest of the family. I can’t imagine what you’ll be going through. I pray for comfort and peace for everyone who knew these two angels. You all are in my thought and prayers daily.

“ I remember when Jacob asked me daughter to Homecoming. It was at a Home Game. Taylor was one of the Cheerleaders and Jacob was on the Football team. Jacob had everything planned ahead of time, coordinated his plans with the announcer, had Tucker, Cayden, and my husband hold up HOCO letters in the bleachers on queue. It was during half time when Taylor's attention was directed to the HOCO letters in the bleachers, Jacob had flowers ready to give Taylor and their romance went on from there. Jacob tends to be soft spoken and reserved and I'm sure it took a lot for him to muster up such a great production in front of everyone. He and Taylor made so many wonderful memories together. I'm so glad he and our family got to go to Busch Gardens together a few weeks ago. Our family will miss you both.. Many times when Jacob would come to pick up Taylor, he had Mikey with him. Mikey, you brought so many smiles to both Taylor and Cayden. We are not ready for you to leave this world but we know that God has a better plan in a much better place. Look after Caleb, Emma Rose, and Taylor; and enjoy unlimited fishing and hunting in heaven. We love you!!! Rest in peace!
