April 28, 1951 - August 19, 2024

Jacqueline “Jackie” Bradley Alley of New Kent, VA went home to be with the Lord on August 19th, 2024, to join her husband, Robert “Bob” Alley and her parents Murphy and Willis Bradley. Jackie is survived by her sisters, Kathy Bradley Davis (Robert), Sheryl Bradley, niece Jennifer Dixon (Jonathan), great niece Cora, great nephew Bradley and cousins Ann Wallace (Mike), Ivy Hill (Joann), Walter Hill (Sherry) and Johnny Gifford (Peggy).

Bob & Jackie owned and operated Robert G. Alley, Inc., Bob Alley Towing, Eltham Mobile Park and Alley Holdings in New Kent, VA. After her husband’s passing, she was a progressive business owner in leading the company as a Small Women-Owned & Minority Owned Business. With the help of Scott Sears, Operations Manager of Bob Alley Towing, Jackie expanded her business into tire services, J&S Tire Service. Jackie served as President of the Virginia Association of Towing and Recovery Operators (VATRO) for several years and lead initiatives to better the towing industry. Prior to Robert G. Alley entities, Jackie was the Administrator at R.L. Polk & Co. and Office Manager at Hawkins-Hamilton (both in Richmond Va).

Jackie loved horticulture and beautifying her home with plants and flowers. She proudly displayed her green thumb wherever she lived. She was a proud citizen of the Pamunkey Indian Tribe and was raised on the Pamunkey Indian Reservation in King William County and a member of the Pamunkey Indian

Baptist Church.
