

Jacqueline Perry

March 17, 1925 - October 30, 2010

Jacqueline Ritchie Perry, a long-time resident of West Point, Virginia and the oldest daughter of the late William Howard Ritchie and Anne Wilson Ritchie Dameron died Saturday, October 30 at home. She is survived by her husband, Henry Vandalia (Dal) Perry of West Point; a sister June Ritchie Oberlander of Kathleen, Georgia; a niece Barbara Oberlander Jansen also of Kathleen; and several nephews: Charles Adams Perry of Atlanta; James Vincent Morgan, Jr., of Lynchburg; William Ritchie Morgan of Richmond; Joseph Knight Morgan of Williamsburg, and Steven Gerhardt Oberlander of Lovettesville, Virginia. There will be no visitation. A memorial graveside service will be held on Thursday, November 4th at 11 o'clock in the morning at Sunny Slope Cemetery in West Point, Virginia. The family will receive guests at a reception afterward at St. John's Episcopal Church, 916 Main Street, West Point. Memorial contributions may be made to Old St. John's Restoration Association, PO Box 976, West Point, VA 23181. Vincent Funeral Home & Cremation Service handling arrangements.