“ So sad to hear about Moon’s passing, it seems like it was only yesterday seeing him come in the Shop back in the day to shoot the breeze. I will always remember his laugh and ability to light up any moment you were around him. He always had a kind word for me anytime we saw each other, he will be truly missed.

To the family, I hold you all in my heart.

“ Moon never met a stranger. He was so kind and always smiling. After my dad died he would check on my mom every once in a while. Of course she would insist that he come in and have something to eat. He loved food and she loved to cook. You were a good man Moon. James and family, I am so sorry for your loss.

Moon was a man who always had his hand out first for a handshake, at least that was my experience and I was no one special. Hard working, loved God and loved to sneak up behind you in a store or wherever he saw you and poke and try to disguise his voice. Moon will be greatly missed by his family and friends. Thoughts and prayers go to the family of James.
