

James Wallace Fary, Jr.

May 26, 1956 - March 28, 2016

James Wallace Fary, Jr. (J.W.) passed away on March 28th, 2016. He was preceded in death by his father, James Wallace Fary, his step father Charlie Bruce and his mother Annie C. Bruce. Also, he was preceded by his sister Carol F. Horsely and Nancy Lucile Fary. He is survived by his fiancée, Wendy McGuire and her family and many, many cousins. J.W. was the sort of man that would help anybody with anything. He had a great heart for his fellow man. He started his working career helping on the family farm, then construction work, driving heavy equipment, and eventually his own business. He was on the road driving tractor trailers for the next 24 years, the last of which were his own. J.W. was always happy doing whatever he was doing. A Memorial service for J.W. will be 10 a.m., Saturday, April 9th at Salem Methodist Church, Gloucester, VA. Arrangements are incomplete at this time. Exact time and date will be posted on his Facebook page and the funeral homes website.

In lieu of flowers we are asking that all donations be made to Vincent Funeral Home, PO Box 191, West Point, VA 23181 to help with his final expenses.

“ Happy belated birthday J.W.... We love and miss you so much, and I thank you for everything you did for me, my mom, and especially my dad. Cousins, yet more like brothers; the kind of brothers that share such a strong bond, it's heartbreaking to see him out there without you. I always expect to look outside and see you and my dad leaning on one of y'all's trucks, talking like a couple of little old ladies until my dad finally would be forced to come inside because it was too dark out to even see anymore lol... I know anyone else reading this will think I'm crazy to say this, aside from the people who were there and family and friends who believe us, but thank you so much for taking the time to talk to me and comfort me whenever we talked on the Board after you passed away. No one can imagine how much comfort it brings to speak to a loved one you are grieving so terribly over. I love you J.W. You've always been like my uncle. I'm glad you're safely passed over and with Aunt Annie now.

“ Jw and I go back almost 30 years. He was the kindest most gentle man, when he wasn't upset with you. LOL I remember riding in the dump truck with him 1 day when someone cut him off at a light. Well, he rolled out of that truck and gave that guy a piece of his mind!!! Then on the other hand, he was teaching me to drive, when I was going to fast and he yelled at me to hit the brakes. When I hit the brakes on that dump truck and did a 360 turn at the end of the sand pit, scared the s-- t out of me. He rolled out of the truck and I just knew he was going to give me hell. Then I realized, he was laughing so hard he couldn't say a word.

I talked to JW Sunday, Easter. He didn't sound good so I told him to call the rescue squad. His answer was typical JW--- He wouldn't call because they(the people on the squad) were having Easter dinner with their families and he didn't want to bother them. I tried to assure him that they would understand. He didn't call!!! He passed away the next morning. He was my ROCK!!!! RIP my dear friend I will see you on the other side!!!

“ So sorry to hear of JW passing we have a lot of memories going back 16 years ago when we were involved with the King and Queen baseball program he was always there to help with our young men and women. JW not only helped run the program but also umpired many games, cooked hamburgers and hot dogs, helped raise money for the league and any other thing he could do including keeping me in line. I know I can speak for all the players we loved us some JW. What fun we had!

*RIP my brother and thank you from all of us
