

James Clarence Haley

August 23, 1931 - April 13, 2021

On the evening of April 13, 2021, Jim Haley joined his wife, Margaret Haley, in Heaven.

In death, as in life, he went out on his terms and in a dramatic fashion, as a COVID and double pneumonia survivor. He passed away returning to his adopted home in Virginia.

To honor his (and Margaret's) love of travel, and unquenchable spirit of adventure, please consider making a donation to RoadScholar, (<https://www.roadscholar.org/about/giving/gifts-in-honormemory/>) in lieu of flowers.
