

James Kent Moore Jr.

October 8, 1961 - April 19, 2022

James Kent Moore, Jr., 60, of New Kent, VA passed away on April 19, 2022 after a long battle with Multiple Sclerosis.

Jamie had a heart of gold and would give you the shirt off his back if he thought you needed it.

He loved the farm and working with family and friends. Sunflowers, pumpkins and ornamental corn were his favorite things to grow.

Jamie was a natural story teller. You would be mesmerized as he told his tales, and rolling with laughter by the time he finished.

Being a history enthusiast, specifically Civil War history, Jamie spent countless hours relic hunting. He would gladly share where and when he found the various pieces of his collection with anyone willing to listen.

During hunting season, you would find Jamie with the Waterloo crew, out and about enjoying the hunt, showing the trophies of the day, and recounting the details that brought them down.

Jamie loved his animals and they loved him. He would tell you they weren't his pets, but that he was their person; and nothing could be truer.

Jamie never met a stranger and would never forget who you were or where he met you. He touched so many lives, in so many different ways. Memories abound for all those whose lives he touched. We will all miss him terribly, but treasure each of the memories of love and laughter he brought to our lives.

James was preceded in death by his father, James Kent Moore, Sr. He is survived by his loving wife and companion of 20 years, Holly Moore; his mother, Dorothy Moore; his step-daughter, Tabitha Luke (Chris); his sister, Joy Blake (Erik); two grandchildren, Calum and Aria; and numerous cousins and friends.

The family will receive friends for a time of sharing memories, fellowship and food beginning at 4 PM on Friday, April 29th at Blake-Moore, (Nanny and Papa Moore's house), 5701 Hopewell Road, New Kent, VA 23124.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the VCU Massey, (<https://www.support.vcu.edu/give/Massey>), P.O. Box 843042, Richmond, VA 23284-3042.

“ Jamie was one of the most wonderful men we've ever met. He loved our girls unconditionally and called them his nieces eventhough we aren't blood. He called me his girlfriend jokingly and could always light up a room with his jovial personality and his crystal blue eyes. His wife, Holly, is one of my very dearest friends. Please keep her and her family in your thoughts and prayers.

“ Jamie was so fun, he always had at least one story to tell. I always enjoyed Jamie, but after he called with support when I was diagnosed with MS, I appreciated him even more. Rest in Peace Jamie where you shall suffer no more!

“ Jamie was a friend to me all through our school years. Jamie was a true friend in every sense of the word. We graduated in 1980 from New Kent High School, after that we lost touch. In 2012 I was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis and was going through a difficult time. Jamie being the sweet soul he was called me to tell me I had to fight this with all I had. After 32 years apart he reached out to an old friend to encourage, show support and let me know he was in my corner. What a wonderful, kind person to reach out after all those years. We stayed in contact with each other after that, my life was made better being his friend. God Bless his sweet soul. Linda G Allen
