

James Turner

June 6, 1947 - October 3, 2015

James Turner passed away October 3rd 2015 in Norfolk, Va. He graduated from Hargrave Military Academy and attended Lees-McRae College. James was past owner of Hawg Wild Cycles and a retired member of the Confederate Angels Motorcycle Club. He was predeceased by his parents Horace and Mildred Turner of West Point, VA and his sister, Rebecca Pallette. James is survived by his sisters Joyce Kerns and Brenda Woodie and their families. He is also survived by several nieces and nephews. A special Thank You to all of his friends who provided love and care in his final days. A graveside service will be 2 p.m. Wednesday, October 7th in Sunny Slope Cemetery, 2400 King William Avenue, West Point, VA 23181.

Tribute Wall

RB

“ Sorry to hear of James' passing. We were friends many years ago.
Richard Burke

richard burke - October 22, 2015 at 05:41 PM

AU

“ James will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. Rest in Peace. S. K. Reed and family

Autumn - October 07, 2015 at 01:12 PM

JC

“ Sorry to hear that James has passed. Worked with him in the later '70s and became good friends. Godspeed James!!

Jefferson Campbell - October 05, 2015 at 12:19 PM