

Jason Clement

July 13, 1971 - August 26, 2019

Jason Clement, 48, of Glen Allen, VA, passed away on August 26, 2019 after battling Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS). Jason grew up in Fall River, MA, graduated from the University of Rhode Island, where he lived until relocating to Virginia in 2002. Despite the move, Jason remained a loyal New England sports fan, sporting his Red Sox, Patriots and Bruins jerseys proudly, as often as he could. Before his illness, Jason was an active member of the Richmond Volleyball Club and the Hollows Golf Club. Jason is survived by his wife Deborah Clement, his mother Darlene Clement, his sister Jennifer Simon, his nieces Samantha Simon, Logan Thomas, Madison Thomas, and a large network of family and friends that supported he and Deborah through their ALS journey. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a small donation to Team Gleason.org or Project Main Street, projectmain.st.org. A celebration of life will be held 2:15 p.m. to 4:55 p.m., Saturday, November 16th at Richmond Volleyball Club, 2921 Byrdhill Road, Henrico, VA 23228.

“ I am so sorry to see this. I know he is in a better place and no longer suffering. He will be missed. Such an infectious smile! I always looked forward to running in to him and Deborah or Kevin watching football. My heart goes out the the family and the many friends and people whose lives he touched. Praying for the family and friends.

“ Jason helped many fellow ALS patients and caregivers through our support group.

We are honored to have known him and eternally grateful to him and Deb for all that they have done to help others. We will NEVER forget him, ever! Rest easy brother, we love you! To Deb and his family, we are so incredibly sorry for your loss.

PEACE & LOVE ALWAYS!
