“ To the family, may you find comfort in knowing that others share with you during this time of bereavement. Jesus has promised eternal life to those who trust and obey His commands. Jean came into that fellowship at an early age and we pray that the relationship grew over the years. Cling to the promise also that one day you will be reunited with Jean and others who loved her too. Jesus will dry your tears and replace them with beams of joy in the coming days. Much love, Brenda Jones Cotman and Ronald Cotman.

“ Aunt Jean, you will never realize the impact you had on my life. Thanks for all you have done for me. When my mother passed you were there for me and Kristen no matter what and for that I am forever grateful. Get your rest your job on earth has been completed. God knows we all loved you but Thank God God loved you best. Until we meet again I ask you to save a seat for me.

“ I never had the pleasure and honor of meeting Mrs. Jean Jones Christian in person, but I have known her daughter Sharon for almost 35 years and I know her grandson Andrew. They say your legacy is defined by what you leave behind for the rest of humanity. Well, Mrs. Jean did an excellent job of raising Sharon, one of the finest human beings that I have had the pleasure of knowing, and in turn, Sharon has done an excellent job of raising Andrew. Sharon, I feel your pain. I lived it when my own mother passed a few years ago, and I still live it every day. Just take solace in knowing that you will see her again. She is safe in God's everlasting arms and smiling at how proud You and Andrew have made her. If you need anything, I am here, but always remember...death is not the end. Peace, love, and respect.
