“ *Dearest Susan,
Sadly I had only come to know you and Jean Claude through your cancer journey. In that time I had come to know what a great love you both had for family and life. I am truly saddened to hear of his passing and hope you both know what an indelible memory he has left us with in that short time.
I wish you and your family a peace that spans the oceans and that God grant you the serenity to remember the life you shared and the lives you touched. I will think of you always.*

*Your nurse,
Jessica*

“ Heaven is lucky to gain such a beautiful soul...but it sure is hard to give him back! JC had such a love of life...his eyes twinkled...and he loved with his whole self. He sincerely treasured his wife, family and friends. He will be missed, but we are the better for having shared his life.

“ I will miss your love of cooking, your humor and hearing the words you would always say when we got together "Bonjour my beautiful sister-in-law", even when I looked absolutely terrible. May you rest in peace my friend. Peut vous reposer en paix mon ami. Thank you for loving my sister and making her happy again for 16 years.
