

Jeannette Windsor Howard

January 30, 1928 - March 16, 2024

After 96 years of devoted worship, faith, and trust in her Lord Jesus, our mom finally met Him face to face on March 16, 2024. She was born in Richmond, Va. to the late Charles and Maude Windsor on January 30, 1928. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Farrar Howard, Sr.; great-grandson, Hawkins Lee Bowman, Jr.; granddaughter-in-law, Noelle Howard; brothers, Charles, Cecil, Herbert and Bobby Windsor.

Jeannette is survived by her sons, Wakie Howard (Rose), Sam Howard (Joanne), Martin Howard (Debbie), Brad Howard (Sharon), and Bruce Howard (Betty); grandchildren, Farrar Howard, III (Kristen), Mary Bowman (Hawk), Malissa Howard, Jessica Phillips (Jairin), Samuel Howard, Joseph Howard (Lynne), Martin Howard, Jr. (Cady), Jonathan Howard (Andrea), Abigail Gerardi (Nick), Taylor Howard (Dan), Caroline Howard, Jordan Howard (Ariel), Bruce Howard, Jr. (Alissa); her daughter, Ruth Hennaman (Dave), their sons, David, Daniel, Allen and their families; 30 great-grandchildren; and her devoted sister, Joyce Eacho.

Jeannette was a member of Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Kentwood Heights Baptist Church, and most recently Tsena Commocko Baptist Church. She had a passion for music which began when she was just 8 years old and played piano at New Bridge Baptist Church. She would go on to serve as the organist at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, and Kentwood Heights Baptist Church for many years. Jeannette also greatly enjoyed leading music for Vacation Bible School at churches in Charles City County, New Kent County, and Richmond, singing in the Charles City/New Kent Community Choir, and volunteering at St. Joseph's Villa.

Jeannette was a graduate of MCV School of Nursing where she worked on the Labor and Delivery floor; a job she claimed was the best job in the world, because she got to rock all the babies in the nursery. In 1953 she and her husband, Farrar, moved to Charles City County where he opened his doctor's office, and she served as his nurse for many years. Jeannette was a Godly woman who consistently lived her faith through her love for music, her love for children, and community service which included coordinating the neighborhood Christmas nativities. In later years, Jeannette continued to serve by knitting hats for the neonatal intensive care unit at MCV. She and Farrar also served as Missionaries to Antigua and Romania.

The family would like to thank At-Home Hospice, especially Eric, as well as her wonderful caregivers, Kelly Addison, Sharon Burnette, Pinky Whitehurst, Laura Araujo, Vicki Bowman, and Irma Otey.

A memorial service will be held 11 a.m., Monday March 25th at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, 19300 The Glebe Lane, Charles City, Va. 23030. There will be a time of visitation with the family from 9 to 10:30, just prior to the service. Following the service, there will be a reception held at Burlington, 13221 John Tyler Memorial Hwy., Charles City, Va. 23030. All are invited.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Tsena Commocko Baptist Church, Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, or Kentwood Heights Baptist Church.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Howard family. Mrs. Howard was an amazing woman and I feel so blessed to have known her. She was a wonderful example of a good wife, mother, grandmother, sister, friend and most of all a Christian woman. I will always remember and treasure her words of wisdom. May God Bless you and comfort you all in this time of grief.

“ Dear family,
I am so sorry for the loss.
Jeannette was such a beautiful lady both inside and out.
I doubt she ever met a stranger because she was a friend to everyone she met.
Cherish your precious memories.
With heartfelt sympathy,
Gloria Couch
