“ *Buck & I have admired the strength and tenacity that you had over the years. To climb a slide for the pool; To work by yourself in the old courthouse; To oversee all of the Dispatch Dept.; to put up with the antics of your friends; & All with a great sense of humor! Everyone will miss seeing you all over the community.
Here's to a great man.
Love ya

“ I've thought so much of Jerry over these last few months and then, especially this week, when I learned of his ultimate journey. He was such a vital part of the New Kent community. Many of us relied on him for directions-back in the days before Waze, Mapquest, and so forth. And he relied on many friends and family for direction to take him to places, fix his plates (Jerry, the peas are at 3:00, the ham is at 12:00 and so forth). When I saw Jerry out and about with his many and various friends, I always thought THEY were with Jerry, not that Jerry came along with them! He was a quiet (sometimes) presence of his own. And he appeared to be the reason for the gathering to me-if he was in a group-he was the first person I saw. I know he and our many loved ones who have gone before are joyous to "see" each other.

He needed no direction to where he is now and I am glad to know that my friend is where I hope to be someday, in case I lose my way.

“ I met Jerry when I joined Lions Club. His humor, out look on life and enjoyment of life was an inspiration to me. I only knew him a scant few years, but will remember his enthusiasm for life always. Jerry, I know you are healed, sighted and enjoying your family and friends. Enjoy the sights you are seeing now. I will remember our conversations about the full moon and stars in the night sky that you and I talked about as you were giving me directions to get to some of the meetings I had the honor of being your driver for the time. Love You and send I send your family feelings of peace at this time. Barbara Niffenegger and family.

“ One of my funniest memories. My late husband with a broken arm in a cast and a broken leg in a cast on crutches , leading Jerry with his white cane up to the doors of "The Red Lobster, while I was parking the car, the manager comes running out shouting "I don't know which of you to Help."
I thank GOD, you can see,hear and walk now. You and he will have a great time up there playing pranks on my mom, Jerry my best friend.
