

Jessie Merle Walton

November 2, 1930 - February 5, 2021

Jessie Merle Walton, 90, of Mattaponi, VA, passed away February 5, 2021 at her home. She was born November 2, 1930 in King & Queen County to the late Joseph L. “Buddy” and Mattie Hurtt Walton. Jessie graduated as valedictorian from Pleasant Hill High School and was later appointed Justice of the Peace and Magistrate for the 9th Judicial District. She greatly enjoyed this job for 43 years and retired as the last magistrate in Virginia working out of her home. Mrs. Walton loved people. She especially loved the officers and individuals who came through her door through her magistrate work. She was always a rule follower, but never a judgmental lady. When the law required that she send someone to jail, she’d often cut them a slice of her homemade pound cake and share it with both the officer and the arrested individual before sending them out the door. It was her way of showing a little compassion to someone on what was probably not their best day. Mrs. Walton was a longtime marriage commissioner and a notary public for the Commonwealth of Virginia. She performed countless wedding ceremonies for couples over the years, many of them in her lovely living room. She was honored to perform the vows for all of her grandchildren’s weddings.

Jessie’s walk with Jesus began early, as she was raised in a Christian home and was a lifelong member of Old Church United Methodist. She was blessed to serve in many capacities in the church she loved, including as a pianist, adult Sunday school teacher, member of the United Methodist Women, church treasurer and as a certified lay speaker for the Rappahannock District.

Jessie was the secretary-treasurer of the Board of Directors and business manager of York Academy for 21 years. She was a past president of both the Woman's Club of King & Queen County and the President's Council of the Lee District Federation of Woman's Clubs. She performed all of her roles with excellence. The books she kept were balanced to the penny, and every detail was attended to.

Jessie had a great love for the Lord and her family. She was a devoted wife, loving mother and a doting "Grammy" to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was a phenomenal cook and lovingly prepared home-cooked meals for family gatherings. Many fond memories were made around the table at Grammy's famous Sunday evening family dinners. Her passion in life was her family. Nothing brought her more joy than being a wife, mother and grandmother.

Jessie was preceded in death by her husband of 51 years, John Moses Walton; two brothers, Joseph L. Walton, Jr. and Monroe Nelson Walton; and a great-granddaughter, Maren Eloise Norris. She is survived by two daughters and their husbands, Robyn and Chris Vincent of West Point, Beverly and Willard Norris, Jr. of Deltaville; six grandchildren and their spouses, Christopher and Jocelyn Vincent, Brad and Danielle Norris, Jonathan Norris, Benjamin and Amanda Vincent, Jessica and Chase Evans, and Ryan and Jeanne Norris; 12 great-grandchildren, Camryn and Cody Vincent, Ruby Kate, Molly and Lucy Vincent, June and Matilda Evans, Jon Daniel and Luke Norris, Ella and Matilyn Norris, and Jolie Norris; along with a sister-in-law, Lois Walton, whom she loved as a sister.

A graveside service will be held 11 a.m. Monday in Old Church United Methodist Church Cemetery, 25614 The Trail, Mattaponi, VA 23110. A walk-through visitation will be held Noon to 4 p.m. Sunday at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, VA. Memorials may be made to Old Church Cemetery Fund, c/o Joyce Goins, 145 Gregory Lane, Mattaponi, VA 23110.

“Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful servants.” Psalm 116:15.

“ Mrs. Walton was such a lady and wonderful role model for young ladies. She helped my mother vote by absentee ballot and made her so happy that, though she was bed-ridden, she could still cast her ballot. I am so grateful for the time she granted to Susan Richardson and me for an interview related to schools and education in King and Queen, specifically at Pleasant Hill. She allowed us to copy her Valedictory Address for the archives at the Tavern Museum at King and Queen Court House. King and Queen and Old Church UMC have lost a treasure. I remember my Mom and I talking with your Mom at Ogg & Sale and in my family's restaurant (Britton's Restaurant) downtown in the early 50"s. I remember thinking what a nice lady she was. I also remember working with her at York Academy where she did some preaching in the early 90's and thinking she was still the same helpful and thoughtful person she had been when I was a child. “ Jessie was one of the finest women and neighbors we've ever had. She was a true testament to God, her family and friends and anyone she knew and came in contact with. There was nothing she couldn't and wouldn't try and we can remember her riding her lawnmower and cutting her own grass even at the age of 89. And has a cook, she shared this talent and just recently came by our house for a visit and brought one of her delicious pound cakes as a gesture to us as my husband hadn't been feeling good. I often went by her house and had long conversations with her about how to handle anything we weren't comfortable with. Her advice was always something we could trust. She was meticulous both physically and emotionally and carried herself well even with some of her own health issues. Her faith was unwavering. We could go on and on about her, but everyone in our community and elsewhere knew what a great lady she was. She will be missed by so many that knew her. RIP Jessie. Our heartfelt sympathy to her family at this time.

So sorry to learn of the passing of Ms. Walton. She was so much fun to talk with. I loved it when we had to have something notarized 'cause it meant I could visit with her for a few minutes! When we first moved to Shacklefords, my kids loved driving by her house around Christmas time...her decorations were beautiful! My youngest daughter especially loved it because she had a Santa Claus climbing up her chimney! I know her family is feeling a great loss, but I hope it helps to know that a whole community is feeling that loss, also. Fly high, Ms. Walton...you will surely be missed!
