

Jewell Powell Bryant

March 8, 1925 - January 24, 2021

Jewell Powell Bryant, 95, of Barhamsville, VA passed away after a brief illness Sunday, January 24, 2021. She was a lifelong member of Mt. Vernon United Methodist Church where she served in various roles including singing in the choir, and participating in the clown ministry. Jewell worked for the City of Williamsburg for over 20 years before retiring. She greatly enjoyed cooking and savored time spent with family and friends.

Jewell was preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, Melvin Warren Bryant; brother, Elton Powell; and sister, Frances Templon. She is survived by two daughters, Anna Bryant and Alice Cline (Virgil); son, Melvin Warren Bryant, Jr. (Jennifer); five granddaughters; two great-grandsons; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Due to the current Covid-19 pandemic, all services and interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Mt. Vernon United Methodist Church, 7801 Church Lane, Toano, VA 23168.

“ As the secretary at the church Jewell worshipped at it was a pleasure to see her and talk with her on the phone. Jewell demonstrated her love for our Lord and his people in a quite and loving manner. Thanks be to God for Jewell gracing this earth for 95 years.

Prayers to the Bryant family and may they find comfort in knowing she is in the arms of her Heavenly Father and reunited with Mel.

“ Jewell was so very precious. I thoroughly enjoyed her humor, and she was always dressed so classy. Got to know her pretty well in our ladies group. She will be missed, but God has gained another angel. My prayers go out to the entire Bryant family.

TJ and I send our love.
