“ Family, I am sorry to hear of your loss. Mr. Joe and his wife Ms. Loretta as I addressed them were special to my best friend Colleen. It's because of her that I got to meet them. They both thought a lot of Colleen and she loved them both so much. To have someone to love us, to ask about our needs, to talk to when you're sad, to share some of our happiness and to give us a word to uplift is what we all need life to be. I think Mr. Joe received all of that and more from those who loved him and whom he loved. Please find peace in his passing for it's not the end for him. For his faith promised him eternal life.

“ I so enjoyed talking to Joe and his beloved wife. He was so loved and rarely missed a church service. I loved listening to his hunting tales and the fun he had talking and “chewing the cud” with his family. He was always ready to share his wisdom and more importantly to him was telling people to enjoy life. Rest In Peace.
Love,
Linda Joy

“ Family,

We were saddened to hear of Joe's passing and offer our sincere sympathies. Joe and his wife Loretta were dear friends and neighbors of my parents. When dad became unable to drive himself to his doctor appointments, Joe and Loretta were right there to help out. For this we will be eternally grateful. We pray that God wii grant the family solace during this trying time. Keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers.

Love,

JoAnne and Warren Bell
